Help Humane Society win $1M makeover

Citizen Staff Report

Anyone who wants to help the Humane Society of Southern Arizona win a $1 million makeover contest can do so in three simple steps, according to a news release from the organization.

The release said the steps are first to set up a free account at www.zootoo.com/makeover. The second is to pick the Humane Society of Southern Arizona as your local shelter.

The third is to reply to the e-mail sent to your inbox to confirm your registration.

The society needs to be in the top 20 shelters to get a chance at the hefty makeover.

Although it joined the contest in October with a bang in 13th place, the release said, the society has since slipped to 39th.

The society has until March 31 to catch up and needs your help now.

The $1 million would be most welcomed to improve the outdated facilities to better serve the community's orphaned animals, according to the release.
